

ALLY

An ally, straight ally, or heterosexual ally is a heterosexual and cisgender person who supports and/or accepts equal civil rights, gender equality, and LGBT social movements.

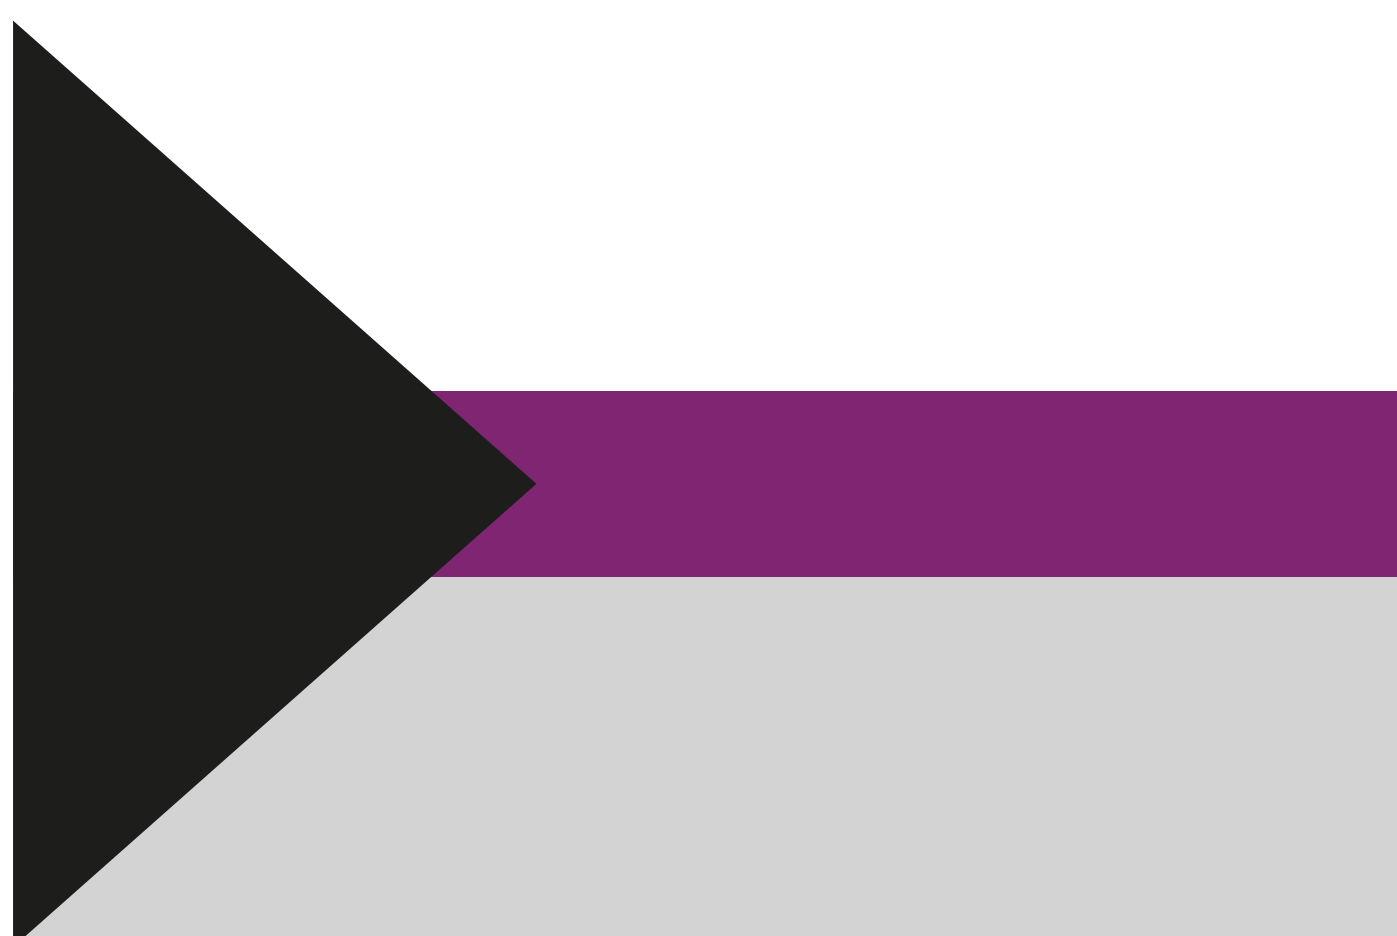

ASEXUAL

Represents those who have no sexual feelings or attractions at all.

BISEXUAL

Represents those who are attracted to both men and women.

DEMISEXUAL

Represents those who require an emotional bond with another person before any sexual feelings can occur.

GENDER - FLUID

Represents those whose gender identity fluctuates over time.

GENDERQUEER

Represents the wide variety of gender identities that are not cisgender.

INTERSEX

Represents those who were born with some combination of both male and female sex characteristics.

LESBIAN

Represents those who identify as women and are attracted to other women.

Flags and Meanings

NON - BINARY

Represents those who don't identify as exclusively male or female.

ORIGINAL GILBERT BAKER PRIDE FLAG

Created in 1978 to represent the LGBTQ community. The colors each have a specific meaning -

Pink - sexuality	Green - nature
Red - life	Turquoise - art & magic
Orange - healing	Blue - harmony & peace
Yellow - sunlight	Purple - spirit

PANSEXUAL

Represents those whose sexual preferences are not limited by the gender, biological sex, or gender identity of their potential partner.

POLYAMORY

Represents those who have the ability and desire to be in a consensual relationship with more than one person at once.

POLYSEXUAL

Represents those who are attracted to many genders.

QUEER PEOPLE OF COLOR

Represents all people of color who exist on the queer spectrum, as well as showing solidarity with the Black Lives Matter movement.

TRANS

Represents those whose biological sex at birth does not match their gender identity.

TWO - SPIRIT

Represents the Native American concept of gender diversity, which includes those who identify as gay/lesbian, nonbinary, transgender, or genderqueer, among others.